From the President

Hello Members and Friends

It's 2020 all over again we are now in another extended lockdown and who knows when this will end, supposedly at the end of August or when 80% of the population over 16 are fully vaccinated. So come on everyone get out there and get the JAB, I am due for my second JAB in two weeks hoorah.

Unfortunately, all dinners and lunches are postponed till further notice.

The Elegant Sparkling Afternoon Tea and Dance may also have to be rescheduled further information will be provided in next month's newsletter.

The AGM will also have to be rescheduled to a date to be decided.

This is all very sole destroying I hope everyone of our members and friends are coping with the current restrictions.

Take care and stay safe my friends.

So goodbye for now.

Your president
John Wilson

Aids Memorial Restoration – Medlow Bath Memorial Park (Reprint)

The Three Sisters Social Group and the Medlow Bath Residents' Association are embarking on a Blue Mountains community effort to restore the Aids memorial at the Medlow Bath Park.

Our first tentative steps to achieve a sensitively appropriate and lasting memorial to the many friends who have sadly left us.

Concept drawings are currently being prepared by Justin Hungerford of Dig Landscape Design that will enable us to have a clear vision forward of the scope and, dare I say, the cost of our endeavour.

Additionally, the site chosen for our memorial, a secluded circular garden nestled under the mature pines in the park, has been cleared of the triffid like agapanthus blighting the site have been removed.

The New Aids Memorial Site

Of course, restoring the memorial will take money. This will take many forms; however, our principal fundraising effort will be focused on our Sparkling Afternoon Tea and Dance at the Fairmont on 10 October 2021. We will be pulling out all stops to provide you with an afternoon of delight that you will cherish for along time to come.

We will be providing you with updates in the coming weeks.
