From the President

Dear Friends

It's AGM season once again. It's therefore time to reflect on the year just past and the ups and downs that have affected us over that time. Thankfully we have experience mostly ups.

Covid had, of course, greatly influenced our activities. As it had for all of our community. Out of the uncertainties caused by the epidemic, the Three Sisters Social Group has come through with a quantum of optimism. We certainly had more wins than losses.

Our covid deferred start of 2021 saw our successful International AIDS Day commemoration and launch of the AIDS Memorial Restoration Appeal at Medlow Bath Park in December. This event was attended by many local dignitaries and drew attention to the memorial and our efforts to perpetuate the memories of those we lost those many years ago.

The intervening period saw much success in fund raising through direct donations and government grants. Unfortunately, our efforts for additional fund-raising activities were thwarted by the pandemic. Nevertheless, we were largely successful in our fund-raising activities which culminated in our HIV Memorial Restoration Dinner hosted and arranged by our good friend Maurice Cooper.

Restoration work can now commence.

The Annual Blue Mountains Ball and Blackheath Disco were undoubted successes. Holding these events hung in the balance, however. Planning, ticketing and promotion of the ball and disco are generally completed by December. It was touch and go whether we could proceed because of the uncertainties of the pandemic. But we took a gamble and launched a late campaign which, despite a few anxious moments, saw our decision vindicated.

All in all, a successful AIDS Memorial Appeal, a moving and poignant International AIDS Day ceremony, a very fun Disco and a hoot of a Platinum and Ruby Queens' Ball, all add up to an eventful and fulfilling year.

My thanks go to the Committee without whose skills and commitment 2021/22 would not have been such an outstanding achievement.

Until the AGM

Stay safe

Terry
