Dear Friends

Welcome to the McCall's edition of the newsletter. I thought a pictorial edition would be easier to publish than the written word. I was mistaken. Oh well.

For many of us the past weeks have been the most impressive of our lives. The rest have been affected in many ways but Pride has been in the forefront of our attention.

I had thought that March may deliver a respite from a very special few weeks, however there appears to be a few events in the calendar that deserve our attention. The first is the "Over the Rainbow" breakfast at the V&A Guesthouse on 12 March 2023.

The Three Sisters have secured a number of tickets on our table to, what has become, a sellout event. Quite a few members have already bought ticket but a limited number are still available from the V&A through our new friend, Josie, on 0459 844 345.

These tickets must be purchased by Tuesday next.

Queer screen is offering an amazing number of films at Mt Vic Flicks during March and Maurice Cooper is hosting a charity event at Bygone Beautys, Leura. As usual, the Three Sisters will be in attendance. Please join us.

Until next time

Stay safe

Terry
