Dear Friends

Our big weekend is over for 2023.

One would say that it was an outstanding success.

bentART, as usual, kicked off the weekend with their annual art exhibition. Congratulations to Susan and her team for a magnificent and very successful show. See the winners and their comments here.

The Disco saw 300 tickets sold. Larry and Greg did a sterling job in organising a very successful night, Greg especially for his artistic creations mobiling above our heads illuminated by the spectacular lighting.

There was some kerfuffle at the end of the night when one very happy and tired guest took a number of coats back to his accommodation thinking they belonged to his friends. Some were, some weren't. It seems that all was fixed up in the end and the coats eventually found their rightful owners.

July and August are busy months for us. Firstly, our annual Christmas in July at the Chalet will be held on 11 July. It's always been a convivial evening and, particularly of late, has proven to be very successful.

Secondly our AGM will be held on 8 August at the Grandview Hotel. Pertinent documents will be sent to members on 18 July. Please see the details of these activities in this newsletter.

Last, but not least, membership renewals are due from 1 July. You will need to be a member to participate in the AGM. Details are also in this newsletter.

Of course, now is the ideal time for new members to join the group. Details of how to do so are also in this newsletter.

Until next month

Have fun,

Terry

Message From bentART

Well, that's the end of another fantastic bentART exhibition. So many talented artists in our community, producing exceptional and varied artworks. This year we had two distinct themes – identity (including lots of Pride specific works) and the natural world. Jacob Appleton excelled in his curation of the works in the physical gallery, as did Amelia Tracey in the virtual gallery. A massive 785 people visited the gallery over the Friday artists and sponsors opening, Saturday, Sunday and Monday (some were repeat visitors), and the artist talks were very popular.

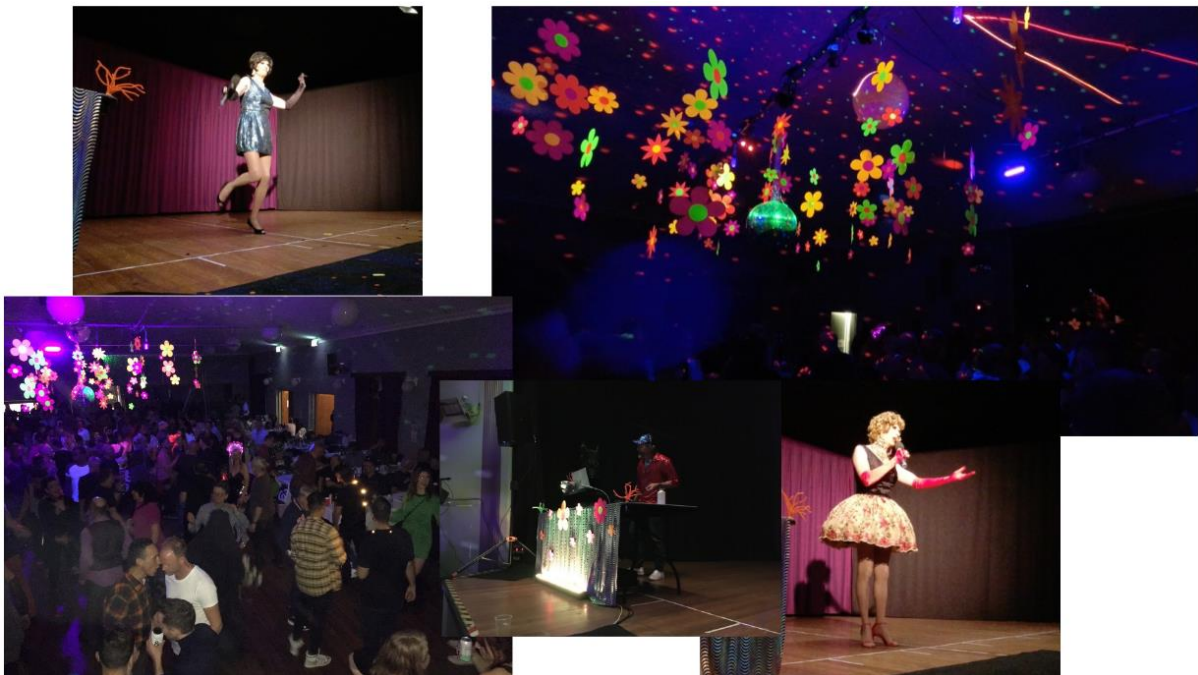

Thank you to all the artists, the committee and the volunteers for making it all possible.

Blackheath Disco

Two fabulous shows from Miranda Fair.

Dj sh0rty kept everyone dancing.

Lighting and decorations by Greg.
