Dear Friends

Looking back over the past month we seem to have packed a lot in.

Our functions, the Melbourne Cup afternoon, a special Christmas lunch and a very pleasant Avalon dinner, were very enjoyable.

It was unfortunate that the AIDS Day reflections had to be curtailed. It was particularly unsettling as the memorial is looking very impressive, the plantings, especially the Forest Pansy, are established and the plaques and their plinths are settling into their environment. It's well worth a visit.

Which leads us to the future.

The Three Sisters Annual Christmas Dinner, with a very special guest to entertain us, will be at the Chalet, 12 December.

The Ball and Disco are well into the planning stage and tickets for the Ball will go on sale in February.

We're also planning something special for January. Details for all these events will be in the January newsletter.

All that remains to be said is to wish you all a very merry Christmas and a happy new year.

Don't forget to reserve your seat for Christmas Dinner.

Until then, stay safe

Terry

It's December, It's Christmas

I could go on with usual platitudes about 'where did the year go' and 'not again' or 'grump'.

But I won't.

Actually, this Christmas seems to be a bit low key, probably because late November, as I write, is a tiny bit far away to be caught up in all of 'it'. Yet.

Maybe it's just our worlds are recovering some their rhythm after the great disruptions of the past few years, worldly disasters and wars notwithstanding.

At least, I'd like to think so.

I tried to find an appropriate quote from some luminary to end this piece, but I couldn't. The ones I found were so sugary carbohydrate heavy that those on Keto would explode.

So, I'll finish with this: wishing you and those you love all the best for Christmas, may it be kind to you and you be kind in return.

World AIDS Day

The first of December is World AIDS Day. We were unable to hold our annual commemoration due to the uncertainty that the road works at Medlow Bath would be completed to enable us to have access to the site.

This has been somewhat of a disappointment in that we could not contemplate on times past and our departed friends and family.

It was a year ago that the rebuilt AIDS Memorial was dedicated in a very moving ceremony.

As you can see by the pictures, taken at the end of November, the memorial has settled in to its environment. It provides a calm and beautiful place of contemplation.

Although we could not have the annual Three Sisters gathering this year, you may carve a few moments from your busy days and spend a few moments in this rather special place.
